Dedication

The Class of 1978 wishes to extend sincerest thanks to our principal, Sister Therese Dunn. Although we had the good fortune of only a year of her wisdom and guidance, we will always be grateful to her for treating us like "special people."

It is in this note that we lovingly dedicate this yearbook to Sister Therese.

Maris Abbene, 160 Suffolk Ave., Revere, Biology, "Goodbye my friends. I hope to see you again someday. But it really won't matter if I don't because you won't be the same as how I remembered you to be." John Arcari, "Stymie," 17 Sammet St., Everett, Accounting, "There is only one success — to spend your life in your own way." Mary Alyward, 20 Bradford St., Everett, "We may never pass this way again." Paul Bagnera, "Bags," 73 Upham St., Malden, Law, "Live as though you will live forever; Pray as though you will die tomorrow." Kathleen Barker, "Kathy," 81 High St., Charlestown, Law and Criminal Justice, "If you do not understand my silence, you will not understand my words." Joseph Barresi, "Monster," 13 Luke Rd., Everett, Law Enforcement, "Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man. Sometimes the man who wins is the man who knows he can." Bryan Bartlett, "Bart," 43 Willard St., Chelsea, Math, "It is better to be silent and thought a fool than to speak up and remove all doubt." Maryann Bartolo, 10 Hill St., Charlestown, Journalism and Psychology, "If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away."

Frank Beaudoin, "Beau," 26 Louis St., Chelsea, Business Management, "To live one's dreams fulfills one's destiny." Stacey Benedetto, 33 Calhoun Ave., Everett, "The most important thing in life is not to make oneself happy, but to bring happiness into someone else's life." Gretchen Benkert, 36 Waldemar Ave., East Boston, Theater Arts, "I love sad clowns. I met one once that let me touch the stars in his eyes and the tear in his heart." Denise Bennett, "Shortie," 230 Webster St., Malden, Entertainer, "Don't walk in front of me; I may not follow. Don't walk behind me; I may not lead. Just walk beside me, and be my friend." Rosemarie Bertucci, 15 Jaques St., Somerville, Spanish, "It is difficult to say what is impossible; for the dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow." Marianne Bishop, 110 Glendale St., Everett, "Happiness is a butterfly, which, when pursued, is just beyond your grasp, but which, if you sit down quietly, will alight upon you." Karen E. Buccheri, 12 Madison Ave., Everett, Fashion Merchandising and Retailing, "So many men seem destined to settle for something small. But I won't rest until I know I have it all. So don't ask where I'm going, just listen when I'm gone, and far away you'll hear me singing softly to the dawn." Robert Burgess, "Rob," 412 Lebanon St., Malden, Fire Science, "It takes a lifetime to search for advice and another lifetime to use it."

Remember . . .

- lunch tickets (green with desert, pink without) . . . or was it the other way around?
- the nail biting days of waiting to hear from that one particular college?
- being the big cheese in school?
- the 11:30 line at the phone booth?
- candy bars and potato chips in the foyer?
- clicking ring boxes to the music at the ring ceremony?
- stopping and suddenly realizing that a certain person "got nice" in three years?
- pressing elevator buttons?
- "jumping rope" in the hall?
- the race for Big Bird?
- the blizzard that turned February into a three week vacation?
- how fast graduation day rushed upon us?

Therese M. Cafasso, "Terry," 78 Sycamore Rd., Melrose, Airline Receptionist, "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams . . ."
(WALDO) Paul Canning, 20 Ingleside Ave., Malden, Psychology, "Yes there are two paths you can go by, but in the long run, there's still time to change the road you're on."
Kelly Carafotes, 37 Salem St., Reading. Nicholas Caraglia, "Carag," 71 Cedar St., Everett, "Imagine there's no heaven . . . No hell below us . . . Above us only sky . . . And no religion too . . . Imagine all the people living life in peace."
Eileen Carr, 79 Elm St., Charlestown, Nursing, "If you love something, let it go. If it comes back, it is yours; if not, it never was."
Daniel Castro, "Danny," 21 Mt. Vernon St., Charlestown, Millionaire, "I never let schooling interfere with my education."
"The Townies." William P. Cataldo, "Cat," 24 Highland Ave., Everett, Accounting, "A winner never quits and a quitter never wins."
Paul G. Cecere, 54 Englewood Ave., Chelsea, Accounting, "Faith in one's self is the foundation of success."

Susan Chinchillo, 104 Estes St., Everett, Business and Travel, "Now I've been happy lately thinking about the good things to come and I believe it could be that something good has begun."
Maryann Chisolm, 13 Windsor St., Everett, Legal Secretary, "Don't you ever ask them why. If they told you, you would cry. So just look at them and sigh and know they love you."
(waldo) Patricia Ann Chodkowski, "Tricia," 115 Irving St., Everett, Nurse, "Short people are just the same as you and I. All men are brothers until the day they die. It's a wonderful world."
(LFTUL) Frank Cieri, 24 Thornton Park, Winthrop. Anthony Ciulla, "Tony," 50 Robin St., Everett, Fire Science, "Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, because I may not lead. Walk beside me, and just be my friend."
Richard E. Coholan, "Rick," 6 Penny Hill Rd., Melrose, Business, "The road to success is dotted with many rest areas."
Angela Colameta, "Ange," 57 Garland St., Everett, Business Secretarial, "Leave me a fragment of this moment, a tiny piece of time, enclosed in glass, preserved forever, just so I can hold it when I want to remember."
Richard Colangelo, "Rick," 16 Porter St., Everett, Accounting, "Don't just listen, understand, it could be you doing the talking."

Wearing a uniform was as much a part of going to Pope John as eating in the cafe. A uniform meant never worrying about what to wear to school the next day. But how could you feel unique, knowing that 400 other girls were dressed exactly as you were? The importance of blazer lapels took on new meaning as girls affixed any type of paraphernalia they could find. From the back view, you were just another fish in the sea of navy blue blazers. But from the front, you were the girl with the "Love Me" button or the clinging Koala bear. On the other hand, "Dress-Up Day" became "Dress-Down Day" for the boys as football shirts, carpenter pants, and work boots were dragged out of the mothballs. They became lost in a sea of uniformity.

Open Letter to a Friend

Thank you for everything you have given to me
—a kind word and a smile when I was feeling down
—some confidence and a push when I was scared and felt like giving up
—a sympathetic ear to listen to my problems and some advice when I needed it
—acceptance of me for what I am and not what you would like me to be —the freedom to grow and be different
Finally, thanks for touching my life in a very special way. Although we are going our separate ways, I'll never forget you.

Christine Havey, "Chris," 39 Cleveland Ave., Everett, Kindergarten Teacher, "I wonder . . . are you destined to echo through my mind forever?" Kathy Higgins, 5 Hampshire St., Everett, Physical Therapy, "Life is like a tapestry of rich and royal hue, an everlasting vision of the everchanging view. A wondrous woven magic in bits of blue and gold, a tapestry to feel and see, impossible to hold." Joan M. Hoover, 44 Walnut St., Everett, Criminal Justice, "Become the person you dream you can be." Karyn Ireton, "Kay," 45 Assunta Rd., Revere, Nursing, "No matter what life brings you, you'll have the strength to bear it, as long as you have love to give and someone who can share it." Edward Irwin, "Eddie," 65 Gladstone St., East Boston, Art, "For a golden moment I felt at one with all that is." THE SOUND OF MUSIC

On the evenings of April 11 and 12, Pope John XXIII High School's own talented actors and actresses presented Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The Sound of Music." Full house crowds witnessed the outstandingly professional performances, showing their appreciation with loud and generous applause.

The enormous amount of hard work that went into the production was evident. It was beautifully staged, superbly cast, and expertly directed by Mr. Stephen Flynn.

Orchestral swellings filled the auditorium, casting a peaceful spell over the assembly. The breathtaking majesty of the Swiss Alps, perfectly preserved in transit, completed the mood.

It was a successful show that will long be remembered.

Nostalgia . . .

The typical teenager of 1978 was different from his earlier counterparts. This was reflected in almost everything around him. Clothing was casual and could include anything from a jogging outfit and sneakers to a three piece suit.

Music in '78 had a heavy disco influence, this was mainly due to the success of movies such as "Saturday Night Fever" and "Thank God It's Friday."

Familiar faces in 1978 included Chevy Chase, Suzanne Somers, Steve Martin and Farrah-Fawcett Majors. After finishing his homework, the average teenager turned the television set to "Welcome Back Kotter," "Saturday Night Live," "The Bionic Man," "Soap" and "Charlie's Angels."

It cost thirteen cents to mail a letter and ten cents for a three minute local phone call. A loaf of bread cost sixty-nine and you could buy a quart of milk for fifty cents.

Things most certainly have changed since then. But to us, the class of 1978, these were "the good old days."

To: Whomever reads this book

From: Mrs. Maureen Demsey

As the moderator of this yearbook, I would like to take this time and space to say thank you to those special few hard working individuals who devoted many hours to creating this volume of Pope John's history.

Everyone is enthusiastic about working in September; the real test comes in June when I see who is still "plugging" to get the ends tied together. Those are the people who really deserve extra notice — the students who spend days in room 408 (and the closet across the hall!) during May and June.

Thank you, Jean Lavorati (editor), Elizabeth Keane, Carol Gould (artist), Ann Jakul, Lori Rumbolt, Suzanne Palladino, Patricia Chodkowski, and Maryjo DelloRusso.
